Â Date: 24 October 2025 Venue: Ramgarhia Polytechnic College, Phagwara

Punjab Police organised an awareness seminar on 24 October 2025 at Ramgarhia Polytechnic College, Phagwara on the topic of drug abuse and its harmful consequences. The seminar witnessed active participation from college faculty members as well as a large number of students.

Senior officers of Punjab Police, including Ms. Madhvi Sharma, Superintendent of Police (SP), were present during the programme and guided the students about the social, physical and academic damage caused by drug consumption. The officers highlighted how drug addiction affects youth, families and the wider community, and stressed upon the responsibility of the younger generation in preventing its spread.

A general message was conveyed on behalf of the police authorities that students must keep themselves away from drugs and contribute to building a responsible and drug-free environment. Participants were also encouraged to inform law enforcement agencies in case they come across any relevant information regarding drug-related activities so that suitable action may be taken in time.

Other police officials also interacted with the students and responded to their queries. The college authorities appreciated the efforts of Punjab Police and expressed that such awareness initiatives will continue to be supported in order to safeguard the well-being of students.

This seminar served as an important step towards strengthening cooperation between educational institutions, the youth and the police in the fight against drug abuse.
