

Vigilance Awareness Week Observed at Ramgarhia Polytechnic College

09/11/2025 03:14 by rampolyphg

Ramgarhia Polytechnic College celebrated Vigilance Awareness Week on 30th October 2025 with great enthusiasm and active participation from both staff and students. S. Jaswinder Singh, Senior Lecturer in Physics, administered the Integrity Oath to all faculty members and students, inspiring everyone to uphold honesty and transparency in all walks of life. Principal Mrs. Rupinder Kaur, along with the Heads of the Mechanical, Electrical, Civil, Electronics, and Computer Departments, participated wholeheartedly in the event. The objective of the week-long celebration was to promote integrity, accountability, and a corruption-free environment within the institution. Various activities and awareness programs such as slogan writing, poster making, essay writing, cartoon drawing, Rangoli competitions, and speeches were organized to spread awareness about ethical values and the importance of vigilance in everyday life. Students participated with great zeal and showcased their creativity and commitment to moral values. In her address, Principal Mrs. Rupinder Kaur encouraged students and staff to practice integrity in their personal and professional lives. She emphasized that such observances play a vital role in building a transparent and responsible society. The event concluded successfully with the collective resolve of all participants to stand united against corruption and to promote ethical conduct at every level.

Â