

Farewell Ceremony Held for Workshop Instructor S. Kuldeep Singh

02/04/2026 01:00 by rampolyphg

Â A heartfelt retirement function was organized at Ramgarhia Polytechnic College, Phagwara to bid farewell to S. Kuldeep Singh, who served the institution with dedication and sincerity as a Workshop Instructor from 29-11-1995 to 30-03-2026. During his long and committed service spanning over three decades, he played a vital role in imparting practical knowledge and technical skills to students. His expertise in workshop practices, along with his disciplined and hardworking nature, helped in building a strong technical foundation among students. He was widely respected for his punctuality, cooperative attitude, and willingness to guide students at every step. On this occasion, faculty members and staff shared their experiences and appreciated his immense contribution to the institution. His dedication towards his work and his supportive nature will always be remembered by colleagues and students alike. The Principal of Ramgarhia Polytechnic College, Mrs. Rupinder Kaur, extended her best wishes to S. Kuldeep Singh for a healthy, happy, and prosperous life ahead, appreciating his sincere services and wishing him success in the new phase of life.

Â